You are protected from when you were given this certificate to the end of your trip.

If Loveholidays stops trading, the passengers named above will either:

1. take and complete their trip; or
2. receive a refund.

Your protection depends on the terms of the ATOL scheme and the specifics of the ATOL holder failure (available at www.atol.org.uk).

If Loveholidays stops trading, you must follow the instructions at www.atol.org.uk (where there will be details of repatriation arrangements, and information on how people can claim their money back) or you can call (+44) 333 103 6350.

By issuing this ATOL Certificate, under Regulation 17 of the Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 2012 (as amended), Loveholidays confirms that the trip to which it applies is sold in line with the ATOL held by the organiser named above. The ATOL scheme is run by the Civil Aviation Authority and paid for by the Air Travel Trust. To see what that is and what you can expect, together with full information on its terms and conditions go to www.atol.org.uk. As well as the protection of the ATOL scheme, you have protection under the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations.
